Arrest made after Pursuit

On 3-6-2015 around 1600 hours, a police officer observed a vehicle in the 400 block of Mt. Clinton Pike driving reckless. The officer activated his emergency equipment to signal for the vehicle to stop. The vehicle disregarded the officer and continued to drive erratically. After a short time the vehicle crashed into a fence pole in the 1800 block of Mt. Clinton Pike.

The driver identified as, Theodore Bryan Knight 44 year old male of Rockingham County, was taking into custody without incident. There were no injuries to officers or the suspect. After Knight was taken into custody, officers determined that he had struck two vehicles in the City of Harrisonburg. The occupants of the struck vehicles were not injured.

Knight was charged with the following:

DUI 18.2-266 (Felony)

Eluding 46.2-817 (Felony)

Drive with Suspended License 46.2-301 (Misdemeanor)

2 counts of hit and run 46.2-894 (Misdemeanor)
